Oil Gas Denmark is proud to recognise

Fanø Kranservice

as winner of the Company Safety Award 2015

---

The annual Danish "Company Safety Award" is being presented to a company which has put in place a clever process or technique to improve safety either across an organization or on individual worksite.

Fanø Kranservice, receives this diploma for their developing of training focusing on "Dropped Objects".

The training was offered to stakeholders and Fanø Kranservice ensured evaluation for and from participants.

The experience and the whole knowledge sharing was a fantastic part, and Fanø Kranservice showed the benefits of "Working Together"
